BANG ON! – rrp £27.99, age 8 to adult This quick-fire team board game centres around a 'Bang On' unit and hammer, and sees teams compete to name as many items from their card as possible in just a few seconds (think 'name round fruits' or 'Queens of England'), and progress along the board. With each correct answer shouted out, the hammer is banged as hard as possible, sending the timer whizzing up to the top again, so gaining enough time to shout out another answer... and so on, and so on! This fast paced game is a thrilling, brain-teasing race to hammer out a few more seconds, with additional hazards and challenges lurking along the board at various points!

GASSY THE COW – rrp £24.99, age 4+ Get set for squeals and giggles of delight as little ones give full vent to their fascination with all things poo ... Because the simple premise of this game revolves around WILL SHE MOOO, or WILL SHE POOO! The aim is to avoid Gassy's poo (don't worry, it's plastic!) and dodge the golden brown mega poo to keep your set of plastic welly boots the cleanest. When it's your turn to lift Gassy's tail, if she moos you've been lucky and no poo will present itself. Otherwise she'll poo and a splat will come out, as either a wee (yellow splat – this 'washes' any existing poo splats off your boots), poo (brown splat) or mega poo (golden brown) – and if it's the latter, this means you're OUT! Say no more...!!

KING PONG – rrp £24.99, age 8 to adult This is a fabulously frenetic game of speed and precision where everyone plays at once. The aim is to get rid of your ping pong balls as fast as you can by scooping them out of your tray - and bouncing them into the cube unit faster than the randomising pyramid inside sends them rolling back to you!

Practise combined with strategic thinking will soon have you aiming them into your opponents' trays, too! The first player with no balls left in their tray WINS!

PANDEMONIO – rrp £19.99, age 8 to adult This is a brilliant, wild and wacky card trading game – where everyone plays at once, all the time! Yes – it's pandemonium... loud, raucous and, of course, extremely funny. It's card-swapping mayhem overseen by the hilarious Wind-up Colin – a timer coffee cup who marches up his track in the centre of the colourful playing board. Each turn, players must collect as many cards as possible with the same image that their playing piece is sitting on. Everyone swaps cards madly (face down) for an equal number of an opponent's cards. Swap again and again until Colin stops – then move on by the number of correct cards collected.

SHARK BITE – rrp £24.99, age 4+ This irresistible children's game combines the classic fishing rod 'hook 'em out' concept with the high tension and excitement of the looming jaws of a randomly snapping shark! It's guaranteed to provide hours of unbeatable fun as players take it in turns to roll the dice and then do their best to fish out the corresponding number of fish food pieces before that big ol' shark's jaws snap shut on you! It's a game of dexterity and skill and will do wonders for those all-important fine motor skills.

SNOTCHA! – rrp £24.99, age 5+ Oh dear, oh dear – this grossly entertaining game is set to be hugely popular with cheeky little ones this Christmas. It's the sneeze spraying action game that's guaranteed to get everyone going, one way or another! Set him up by filling the sneeze chamber with cold water and inserting the batteries into his feet – now the little ones are ready to start! Take your turn to spin the spinner to see how many times to push down on Snotcha... time to see if he can hold in his snotty sneeze or not ... will he sneeze at'choo? Phew ... you've stayed dry this time ... or – AAAHHH CHOOO! Ewww that is a super wet sneeze! And you're out of the game.
