The unique and super-popular new team game SHOUT! (rrp £29.99, age 12 to adult) is a puzzler's delight! It's bursting with quirky questions and cunning picture puzzles where you have to look, link and think – stretching those little white cells to make connections between what you see on the Challenge card and what the answers are likely to be. Each of the 167 super-size cards features a set of nine challenges on both sides (themed images, words, figures etc.) – that's almost 3,000 challenges in all!

If you're one of the very few people out there who haven't played Articulate! (rrp £32.99, age 12 to adult) already, you really, really should! Perfect for players of all ages, it's an absolute riot and a hilariously raucous team game. How quickly can you define a word – from the categories Object, Nature, Person, Action, World and Random - without actually saying it?

In this game, everyone – DESCRIBERS and GUESSERS - gets to join in, as players frantically try to put over words as diverse as "limousine", "accruing" ... then "a tulip", in just 30 seconds. Besides talking, you can gesticulate or mime if you get the urge and you think it'll help!

Things get crazy ... but suddenly, your time's up and another describer takes centre stage. Speed is of the essence, and the more words your team can guess from your descriptions before the timer runs out, the quicker you'll cross the finishing line!

Many families take a board game away on holiday with them – and with Easter coming up, this is a great opportunity for everyone to enjoy some fun time together. Do you know Skips from Hula Hoops, or Penguin Books from Penguin biscuits? The UK's Number One best-selling LOGO picture board game from Drumond Park (rrp £32.99) tests how clever you are at recognising well known brands and their logos, alongside knowledge questions based on hundreds of the UK's best loved products and organisations – from Aero Bubbles, Bird's Eye, Chelsea Football Club and BMW... to Walkers crisps and Wrigley's gum.

Stand by for many hours of fun with family and friends with the uproariously funny Rapidough family team game of modelling charades (age 8+, rrp £24.99)! There are hundreds of simple, interesting everyday objects to sculpt – and there's never a dull moment, as everyone gets stuck in and plays at once!

At the end of each round, the losing team has one 'plug' of dough taken away from them. If your team loses too often, imagine the hilarity of trying to sculpt something like a snail, a hand, a helicopter or a hedgehog - with a pea-sized piece of dough!
